SPACHE – 3rd TRANSNATIONAL MEETING (Piran, Slovenia)

The third transnational meeting of the SPACHE project – Sport and Physical Activity in Cultural Heritage Environments was held on June 10 in Piran (Slovenia), led by Tempo Livre through the Sports Studies Center and in which representatives of the Olympic Committee of Slovenia, Municipality of Guimarães (Portugal), IRS (Italy), Comune di Gargnano (Italy) and Sport Fryslân (Netherlands) also participated.

The meeting, held in a face-to-face format, had as its main theme the monitoring and mid-term evaluation of the project and in particular the implementation of the Pilot Programs, which are currently taking place in four countries (Portugal, Slovenia, Italy, and the Netherlands).

The Social Impact Plan was also presented and the next activities of the project were defined.
