SPACHE – 6th TRANSNATIONAL MEETING (Brussels, Belgium)

The last transnational meeting of the SPACHE project, coordinated by Tempo Livre, which seeks to promote physical activity and sport through cultural heritage. was held in Brussels on the 7th and 8th of June.

This meeting, which was divided between the offices of the partner Sport and Citizenship in Brussels, and also at the facilities of the Permanent Representation of Portugal in the European Union served to present the final version of the Special Journal Edition and to articulate the conclusion of the final documents of the project.

The event included the Final Conference and the Multiplier Event organized by the partner Sport and Citizenship, where SPACHE was presented to an audience including representatives from several countries and professionals in the field of sport.
